

A water tank with a capacity of 50000 litres was constructed in the campus as a central system and individual overhead tanks on all buildings. Chlorination is done periodically in the water supply system. Samples are also taken and send for FSSAI certificates.

---