

The Biotechnology department, Soil Science department, Pathology department have laboratories attached to it. The Molecular Biology laboratory which functions under the Department of Plant Biotechnology supports successful conduct of research in the discipline. During the year 2015-16, several equipment required for pesticide residue analysis were purchased by the Pesticide-Residue lab. The laboratories are equipped with modern equipment such as GC, GCMS, HPLC, Hydrogen evaporator and Rotary vacuum evaporator. Details of lab and facilities in section for UG & PG Programme. In addition to the laboratories attached to the major departments, there is a Central Instrumentation Laboratory.

---